The Senior and Junior Swamies of the Sri Uttaradi Matt have intimated that Vedamurti Seturamacharya has been installed as Junior Swami of the Matt.

2. The procedure laid down in Govt. Order No. 233-42 dated 14the December 1892 (Printed copy put up) has not been followed in settling this succession to this Matt. It seems to me that this ~~course~~ Course has been deliberately adopted.

From the office notes in marginally noted files put up for reference, it is clear that the Matt wants to ignore this Government Order. The Muzrai Secretary in 1898 was informed (as) that any reference to this order would be looked upon as disrespectful to the Matt.

by whom

The present Senior Swami was installed in 1904 without a communication to this Government prior to nomination and installation.

The same has been done now also.

If the Matt thought itself bound by the Government order of 1892 the Senior Swami in his present communication would have said so and added that on account of sudden and serious illness he nominated and installed a successor. There is no such admission; nor does it appear that there was sudden and serious illness.

The contention of the Matt is that they are to communicate the succession and not to obtain consent to the nomination of the successor.

3 The question is whether or not the nomination is to be recognised. But for the existence of the order of 1892 there would be no difficulty at all. Pandit Seturamacharaya is a man of great learning and appeared to command much respect among Madhwas. He is the son of a former Swami. His selection appears to be unexceptionable. Had consent to his selection been asked for, I should have without hesitation supported the application.

Now the Government order of 1892 is set at nought and the succession has merely been communicated for information, It is not for me to say what is to be done. If on a perusal of the petition of the Madhwa Siddhantannohini Sabha of February 1905 and a consideration of all the circumstances of the case Government should feel that the order of 1892 is an archaic revival the sooner it is done away with the better will it be for all. To look upon it as being in force and to allow it to be treated as a dead letter does not appear to befit the prestige of Government.

4. With a view to find out the circumstances that led to the issue of the order of 1892 I got the connected file No. 102-1892 and have put it up herewith. There is nothing to show what specific circumstances necessitated the issue of that order; but the Dewan and Councillors of the period seem to have ~~hinted~~ treated the matter as a delicate one.

5 Having read that Austria and Italy claim the right of veto at the election of Popes, I wanted to see if this were similar to the power claimed in the Government order of 1892. I now find that this right of veto had its origin when the Pope had temporal power.

Submitted to His Highness.

In Nirup dated 31st December 1911, His Holiness Sri Satyagnana Tirtharu, Guru of Uttaradi Mutt, intimated the nomination of Korahalli Seturama Charya as his successor to the Uttaradi Mutt. Vedamurti Seturama Charya has also intimated that he has succeeded to the Uttaradi Mutt under the name of Sri Satya Dhyana Thirtha Swamy.

2. The nomination and succession of Vedamurti Seturama Charya requires the approval of His Highness the Maharaja and the procedure laid down in Government Order No.233-42/Muz.F.102-92 dated 14th December 1892 has not been observed by the Mutt.

3. The First Councillor has 'grave doubts about the order of 1892'

4. Orders having been passed in 1892 and enforced in more than one case and in the case of this Mutt once before, the question is whether it is expedient to re-open this matter at this distance of time. All the Mutt lands and cash grants are under attachment by Government partly owing to the disregard of the orders of 1892 and partly as protection against attachment by decree-holders.

5. I think that we are not required to take any action in the matter.

6. I submit the case for orders.
